This matter is before the court upon motion of plaintiff's counsel, Paul T. McChesney, for attorney fees under the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. § 406(b). Counsel has submitted copies of the Notice of Award from the Commissioner and the plaintiff's signed Fee Agreement. The Commissioner has responded to the motion indicating that she does not oppose the fee request.

Plaintiff's counsel petitions the court for approval of the federal court related fee in the amount $14,327.25 pursuant to the terms of a written contingent-fee agreement with the plaintiff. That contingent-fee agreement provides, in pertinent part, for the payment of attorney fees in the amount of 25% of all past-due benefits recovered. The plaintiff's attorney previously sought, but was denied by this court, fees under the Equal Access to Justice Act (EAJA), 28 U.S.C. § 2412.

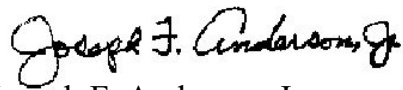

In the United States Supreme Court case of Gisbrecht v. Barnhart, 535 U.S. 780 (2002), the Court held that the provision of the Social Security Act limiting attorney fees to 25% of past-due benefits does not displace contingent-fee agreements that are within such statutory ceiling, and instructs courts to review for reasonableness fees yielded by such agreements.

Upon review of the material submitted to the court, the undersigned finds that plaintiff counsel's request for attorney fees is reasonable. Therefore, it is ordered that the plaintiff's attorney may collect a fee of $14,327.25 from past due benefits.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
